They were little. They were alone in a big field. Their ears hurt. They needed help.

Cat Matchers gave that help. We took in those three 3-week-old kittens whose ears had been mutilated. We gave them medical attention. We gave them shelter. But, most of all, we gave them enough love to wipe away the pain of inhumane, senseless torture.

That's what we do – help the helpless. Today, Karma, Sojourn, and Kismet, the three earless kittens, are happy, healthy and thriving.

Peanut

And they're not the only ones. Peanut was covered with fleas and afflicted with Hemobartonella, which killed his red blood cells, making him severely anemic. He needed a blood transfusion to survive.

Two full-sized adult cats, Nancy and Monica, were crammed in a small carrier and left behind in a cart at a local pet store. A living litter of kittens were found in a trash can. Those are only a few of the many stories. At Cat Matchers, we want to help them all.

Caring for animals requires patience, love, time and a lifelong commitment. Unfortunately, not all pets experience this ideal lifestyle. Cat Matchers strives to help the helpless, the neglected, the injured and the unwanted animals. We rescue from a variety of heartless and all-too-often senseless situations. Cat Matchers provides all necessary vet care to rehabilitate and to prepare pets to be adopted out to live the ideal life they so deserve, but the vet bills, emergency clinic bills, testing and medication costs are staggering. We struggle because there are so many animals and not enough resources to do all that is needed.

As animal lovers, this is your chance to help the animals most in need! Save a life now by making a tax deductible donation. Any size donation can make a difference and save the lives of many. Have more time than money?

Do you have a spare room, a little love and some extra time? More foster homes allow us to help more animals: short-term and long-term care is needed. Cat Matchers also needs volunteers to help in various other areas such as adoption events, special events, cleaning and caring for our cats in adoption stores, publicity, marketing and transportation help. There are so many ways for you to get involved. There's a place for you here - and we welcome any time and help you can offer.

Your help may be the difference between life and death for many animals.

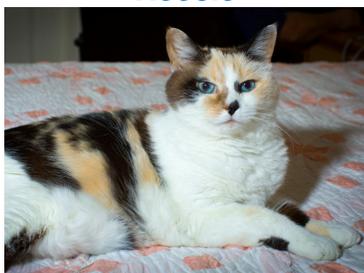

Thank you for opening your hearts and caring as much as we do. Your support allows us to continue our mission one animal at a time.

Sincerely,

Tammy Kidwell, President

Reecie

This sweet senior cat, Reecie, was put outside by her previous owners and expected to "make it in the wild". With kidney and teeth issues, she was unable to eat and the shelter that picked her up called us the day before she was to be euthanized.

Jewel

Jewel's previous owners gave up on her when she needed them most. She was found hanging from a fence with a severely broken leg which needed to be amputated. Her owners dropped her at a vet's office and asked them to put her to sleep. Luckily, Cat Matchers stepped in to help her, and with some TLC she is now healed, healthy and is looking for her forever home.

Cinder

Cinder was turned over to the emergency vet when he was 4 weeks old after suffering a broken leg from a cinder block being dropped on him. Unfortunately his leg was not able to be saved and was removed. He is a spunky little man who has no idea he is missing a leg and he is looking for his forever family!

Thank you in advance for your kindness. Your tax deductible donation will allow us to help improve the lives of many in 2014!
